National Association of Black Military Women

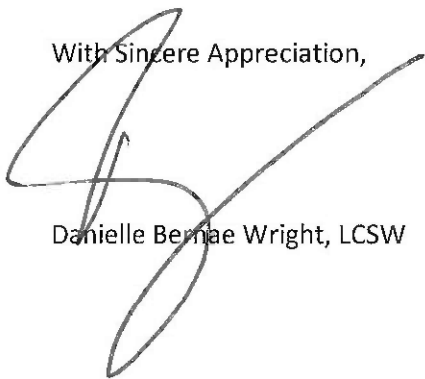

Dear Members of the Scholarship Committee:

I am deeply honored to have been selected as a recipient of the National Association of Black Military Women Scholarship Award. I extend heartfelt gratitude for your generous support and for recognizing my dedication to both education and service.

This scholarship will significantly aid me in continuing my education and achieving my academic and professional goals. I appreciate your investment in my future and I am inspired to give back to my veteran community.

Thank you once again for your generosity and for the work you do to uplift and empower veterans. I am proud to now be connected to your organization.

With Sincere Appreciation,
